Being a member of more than one club

If you are already an individual member of Mountaineering Scotland or of another affiliated club then you do not have to pay another affiliation fee. Select "multiple club discount" to receive this discount. Please make sure that the other club has paid your affiliation fee this Mountaineering Scotland membership year (which runs April to March).

If you choose to pay the full membership fee then the extra money will go into Jacobite funds – but please tell the membership secretary that you are a member of another affiliated club.

If you were recently a member of another affiliated club but your membership has lapsed then we can transfer your affiliation to the Jacobites. Speak to the membership secretary to work out whether you can get the multiple club discount this year.

If you are taking this discount please provide some extra information:

Participation Survey

Please tick if you expect to participate in a relevant mountaineering activity*, which occurs as a direct result of you being a member of the club, on 12 or more days in the upcoming year.

These do not need to be formal meets. Examples include hill-walking/climbing (indoor or outdoor)/ski-touring/biking which occur: as part of a club meet, other club event (e.g. midweek climbing), independent days based at the club hut. Also included are club support roles, e.g. committee, hut maintenance, etc. If unsure, please ask to see the BMC guidance notes.*
